

BRCVPA SUMMER ART CHALLENGE

Welcome to BRCVPA's Summer Art Challenge! Your mission, if you choose to accept it, is to complete as many of the challenges as you can – and your family allows. The challenges should exercise your creativity, introduce you to new-to-you types of art, and be fun. Some of these will require adult supervision or help. Any pictures of your artwork or documenting outings can be emailed to me (lgautreau@ebrschools.org). More information about these challenges can be found on my website under "Summer Art Challenge" (<http://lgautreau.weebly.com/summer-art-challenge.html>)

Visit an art museum or gallery and experience original art! (LSUMOA & LASM = free on each 1st Sunday. Baton Rouge Gallery is free Tues-Sun, 12pm-6pm. with an opening reception the first Wed of every month.)

Design your dream treehouse or fort.

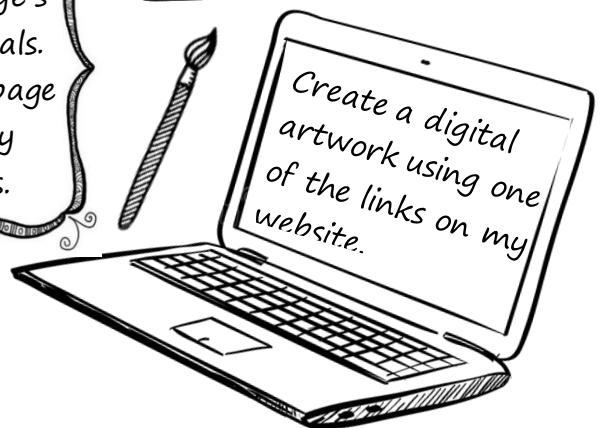

Visit the Arts Council's Arts Market (6/2, 7/7, or 8/4 from 8a.m – 12 p.m.)

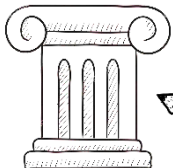

Find an inspirational quote. Write it and make the letters fancy. Decorate your quote with a few designs or pictures.

BREC parks & the Libraries often offer art activates. Visit their websites to see what art you can make close to you.

Visit a few of Baton Rouge's many murals. Check my page to see my favorites.

Squeeze and twist aluminum foil to create a sculpture

Design a bedroom for yourself. Choose colors, furniture, patterns, lights, and curtains. Draw a layout showing where the furniture would go.

Use found or recyclable objects around your house to create a piece of art. Google Louise Nevelson for inspiration.
